FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEISD Board of Trustees calls $399,410,000 bond election *Voters to decide on May 14

February 28, 2011 – Tonight during a special board meeting, the North East ISD Board of Trustees voted unanimously to call a bond election for $399,410,000 that will be on the May 2011 ballot. The bond issue was recommended by the Community Planning and Advisory Committee made up of North East residents and will address growth, facility equity and additions, a school bus replacement program, a technology upgrade package, and a new middle school.

The estimated property tax increase to NEISD residents with the average home value of $162,000 would be $12 a month.
