North East ISD Community Education offers diverse spring classes

January 5, 2011 -- Registration is underway for North East Community Education's (NECE) spring session. Hundreds of classes, ranging from acoustic guitar to dog obedience to genealogy, will be offered starting in February.

New classes this session include: eBay for Seniors; Dreamweaver; Promoting & Marketing Your Business on a Shoestring Budget; I've Always Wanted to Do Stained Glass; Sushi 101; How to Raise an Eater; Country & Western Cha-Cha; Boxing 101; Aquatic Conditioning; Cloth Diapering 101; Organic Gardening Basics; Baby Signs®; Public Speaking; and Car Care for Guys & Gals.

Focus this session is on the theme Extreme Spring Makeover. Classes, such as Design Zone - How to Create the Home That Feels Like Home to You, can help participants perform home makeovers. Participants can also achieve personal makeovers in Makeup Application 101, and Six Tools for Living Peacefully, as well as through a variety of health and exercise classes, such as Easy & Healthy Cooking and Why Weight? (weight reduction class).

NECE offers classes in areas of business, arts and crafts, dance, music and drama, exercise, sports and outdoor activities, financial, health, home and garden, languages, personal improvement, sewing and stitchery, technology and travel. Also offered are classes for youth, as well as online courses. Youth classes include Zumba®, art, yoga and more.

Classes will be offered at many convenient locations including several district schools and the North East Community Learning Center at 8750 Tesoro Drive. Registration can be completed online, as well as by phone, fax or mail. For more information, or to register, visit the Community Education Web site at www.communityed.neisd.net or call (210) 657-8866 to request a catalog.
