

EXTRA!
EXTRA!

North East ISD

NOVEMBER 2009

making the news

The Roosevelt Health Occupation Students of America Club welcomed an AirLIFE helicopter to kick-off National HOSA Week. KSAT

Oak Grove began the Watch DOGS program to invite more male-role models to volunteer on campus.

Jackson hosted a 411 on Internet Safety presentation for parents.

NEISD held public boundary meetings for two elementary schools currently under construction, Cibolo Green and Tuscany Heights.

NEISD hosted a Mental Wellness Fair to educate families on mental illnesses affecting middle and high school students. Educational sessions were taught by local physicians and district staff to help families identify and work through mental disorders and addictive behaviors in teens.

Garner celebrated its 2009 No Child Left Behind-Blue Ribbon School Award. The U.S. Department of Education named Garner as the only school in San Antonio to receive this award. Principal Donna Newman was named the recipient of the Terrel H. Bell Award for Outstanding School Leadership, also given by the U.S. Department of Education. She was the only principal in Texas to receive this award.

* Message on TEA's Twitter account.

Honoring our Veterans

Several NEISD campuses, including East Terrell Hills, Colonial Hills, Wilderness Oak, Bradley and Johnson, celebrated Veterans Day with ceremonies to honor the nation's heroes.

Longs Creek attempted to break a Guinness World Record in the fourth World Sport Stacking Association STACK UP!

Several NEISD students were named winners in the City of San Antonio Holiday Card contest.

