

Portfolios

90-100

Portfolio is neat, organized, and complete. Student has rewritten major or selected writing pieces and has incorporated improvements. The author's letters are well-written and thoughtful about the process of writing. Portfolio shows that the writing is improving and developing excellent writing skills by recognizing problems and dealing with them effectively.

80-89

Portfolio is neat, organized, and complete. Students has rewritten major or selected writing pieces and has made an effort to incorporate improvements, although may not be entirely successful. The author's letters are acceptable and shows some insight into the writing process but may contain writing errors. Students shows some improvement in writing.

70-79

Portfolio is minimally neat, organized or complete. Student has made a minimal effort to rewrite major or selected writing pieces and has made a few changes. The author's letters are not well-written and shows little insight into the writing process. Students show little improvement in writing.

60-69

Portfolio is messy, unorganized, or incomplete. Students have made an effort to rewrite papers but have incorporated no changes. The author's letters are an attempt to "get anything down." Students show no improvement in writing.

Below 60

Portfolio is messy, unorganized, or incomplete. Students have not rewritten papers and\ or there are no author's letters.