

rock

a solid material made up of minerals

soil

the loose material that covers the Earth's surface

environment

the surroundings that an organism lives in stream

a small body of flowing water

lake

body of water with
land all around it

ocean

a large, deep body of salt water

natural resource

materials in nature
that people use to
make things

water cycle

the way water moves
from the ocean,
to air,
to land
and back again

mass

the measure of the amount of matter in a solid, liquid, or gas recycle

to collect things so they can be remade into new things.

condensation

the change from a gas to a liquid

food chain

transfer of energy from one organism to another