STUDENTS MUST UNDERSTAND AND AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING GUIDELINES:

- The District's Code of Conduct applies at all times;
- Every rule in the organization's constitution applies on trips;
- Students must immediately follow instructions given by the directors and chaperones;
- Students must be on time for all roll checks;
- No one leaves the group without permission for any reason;
- No one leaves the hotel room for any reason after bed check. If there is an emergency after bed check, the student should call the chaperone's room;
- Chaperones will make regular room checks;
- Every student will be assigned to a specified group with an assigned chaperone;
- Chaperones are responsible for roll checks, meeting times, bed checks, staying with the group at all times, designating meeting places and times, not students;
- Noise in hotels is to be kept to a minimum;
- No one outside of the travel group is permitted to be in the hotel rooms;
- All misbehavior is to be dealt with immediately;
- In the event of a major student offense (assault, weapons, theft, drugs, alcohol, out after bed check, having a guest in the hotel room) or persistent misbehavior, the student is to be sent home immediately at the parent's / guardian's expense.
