

English II Pre AP Summer Reading Assignment

My Name is Asher Lev by Chaim Potok

This summer, new English II Pre AP students must read My Name is Asher Lev. Students will be expected to keep a dialectical journal and to be prepared to take a quiz when they return in the fall. This journal will be a major test grade.

When making your journal, use one page per chapter. Summarize the chapter on the left, and offer at least one strong quote (with explanation) on the right. This quote will be the point of discussion at our round table discussions at the beginning of next year.
