Dear Parent/Guardian:

The North East Independent School District (NEISD) is sharing information about the District and your child's campus with you as part of its obligations under the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.

The following information is now available on the District's web site at this link:

http://www.neisd.net/neisdinfo/nclb2007\_08.html

- Assessment results for the District and campuses in the aggregate and disaggregated by race/ethnicity, gender, disability status, migrant status, English proficiency, and economically disadvantaged showing two year (2006-2007 and 2007-2008) trend data for each subject and grade tested -
  - by performance level,
  - with a comparison between annual objectives and actual performance for each student group, and
  - including the percentage of each group of students not tested;
- Graduation rates for secondary school students;
- Performance of the District and campuses on adequate yearly progress (AYP) measures;
- Number and names of Title I schools identified as in need of improvement, including the stage of improvement and AYP indicator missed for any schools identified for improvement; and
- Professional qualifications of teachers in NEISD, including the percentage of teachers teaching with emergency or provisional credentials and the percentage of classes in NEISD and campuses that are not taught by highly qualified teachers, including a comparison between high- and low-poverty campuses within NEISD.

If you have difficulty accessing the information from the web site, hard copies of the reports are available at the North East Education Center or in the office at each school in the District. If you have questions about the information, please contact me at 210-804-7228.

Sincerely,

John Cadena
Director for Research and Information Technology
