

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

The Executive Director of Transportation has overall responsibility for the operation of the Transportation Department. The organizational chart above illustrates the organization of the Department, the chain of supervision, and supervisory personnel at all levels. Sound management dictates that problems be resolved at the lowest level of supervision. If you need assistance, you should proceed up the line of supervision.