Dear Parents/Guardians and Students,

NEISD will provide an opportunity for all juniors to take the PSAT/NMSQT exam in the fall of 2021 and the SAT exam in the spring of 2022 at no cost. Due to COVID-19, we will provide seniors who did not take the SAT School Day exam on March 24, 2021 an opportunity to take the SAT exam in the fall of 2021 at no cost. These exams will be administered in-person at each of our high schools. Campus staff will complete the registration process for all juniors and seniors.

Additionally, freshman and sophomore students will have an opportunity to take the PSAT in the fall of 2021. Campus staff will complete the registration process for freshman and sophomore students.

As we develop our testing plan, we will remain committed to the health and well-being of all students and staff by creating a safe testing environment.

If there is a cancellation for any of the listed exams, Guidance Services will post the changes to the NEISD website and students and parents/guardians will be notified.

At this time, the testing plan for NEISD students is listed below:

- October 13, 2021 - PSAT/NMSQT administered to 9th -11th grade students
- October 28, 2021 - SAT School Day administered to 12th grade students who did not test on March 24, 2021
- March 23, 2022 - SAT School Day administered to all 11th grade students

We recommend you check the NEISD website throughout the year for all updates and communication regarding these exams.
