

NEISD Year at a Glance 2018 - 2019
Kindergarten Social Studies

School Year
Unit Title These can be taught in any order	Our Community	The Geography of our World	History of Communities	Holidays, Historical Figures and Culture	Economics of Communities	Government of Communities
Time	5 weeks	6 weeks	6 weeks	8 weeks	5 weeks	6 weeks
Understandings and Essential Questions Kindergarten Checklist Celebrate Freedom Week Week of Sept. 17th	Our school is a community. San Antonio is a community. There are different types of communities. What is a community? How are communities different?	A place can be described by its relative location to other places. Maps and globes are tools that determine location. A place can be described by its physical and human characteristics. How would we describe this place? Where is ___ in our community?	Early Americans formed communities. Communities change over time What was life like long ago? What are some communities of the past? How do communities change over time?	Communities celebrate different holidays and traditions. Historical figures, patriots, and good citizens helped shape the community. Communities have important customs and traditions. How do we celebrate holidays and customs in our communities? How do citizens shape the community?	Wants and needs of people are different. People needs and wants can be met through work. There are many different jobs in a community. What is the difference between a need and a want? Why do people have jobs? How do people in communities work together?	Rules provide order, security, and safety at home and school People in communities follow rules and laws. Leaders can help the community Important symbols, customs, and responsibilities contribute to our national identity. How do rules and leaders help our community? What does it mean to be an American?
TEKS	Resource Link

North East | Division for Instruction
Independent School District & Campus Administration
Curriculum and Instruction

NEISD Year at a Glance 2018 - 2019
Kindergarten Social Studies