

Name:

Freshwater and Seawater Biomes
Student Questions

1. What process are the people of Santa Catalina doing for their drinking water and how does it work?

2. How much water do astronauts that aboard the national space station use?

3. Where is the world's largest store of fresh water located and how big is it?

4. What is the breeding ritual for the frogs?

5. Why is the summertime in the marshlands of Northeast Asia important?
.

6. How are cranes one of the top predators of the marshlands?

7. Why are the sponges in Lake Bikal green?

8. What is the life of the Catus fly once they reach land?

9. How do the falling temperatures and chilling wind and rain affect the animals in the marshlands?

10. Where are the Japanese cranes which are endangered species found?