

Acting 3 Class Rubric

Points	5	4	3	Total
Preparation	Much prep obviously done outside of class; knows the play and GC applied; confident & comfortable w/material; distinct, specific choices	Well memorized but lacks confidence. Mostly confident and comfortable; most GC are clear; inconsistent choices	Actor stumbles and pauses inappropriately; unprepared; memorization is not solid; superficial understanding of scene
Creativity	Unique choices; takes risks; brings original ideas to piece	Less comfortable with risks; brings some original ideas to piece; doesn't adhere to appropriate characteristics set to character	No risks; afraid to commit; 2-D
Physicality	Engaged body; relaxed; controlled; natural movement that embodies character; comfortable with body	Rehearsed moves; lacks boldness; less comfortable with body; mild tension evident	Awkward stance; rigid/wooden; "generalized" movement; mechanical movement; tense posture;
Voice	audible; range; clear diction; tone/inflection appropriate to GC; Scansion work audible in emphasis; variety/color; clear & strong; volume control	lack of range; strong volume but lacks color; diction is less clear; less control over pitch & tone; Scansion work audible at times but inconsistent	No energy, projection issues; little to no diction; verse played like contemporary dialogue
Emotional Life/Honesty	Character is alive; audience believes you; real connection to character; true understanding of character & GC; good research; fully transformed into character	Potential shown, but incomplete understanding of character; audience has doubts; inconsistent sense of honesty (faking), though often believable	Audience is not convinced; lack of motivation; inconsistent; limited & artificial emotional range; superficial "feelings"; weak character choices
Purpose	Strong conflict; clear quest/need/objective; clear choices; excellent focus	Purpose with holes; Audience left w/questions	Unclear; confusing; generalized comprehension of text
Scoring	A = 30 - 27	B = 26 - 22	C = 21 - 18
