District Information

Reminder that we have a school holiday this Friday, 4/26! Enjoy the three day weekend!

The North East ISD CTE Business and Industry Council will be hosting the 21st Annual Career Expo for middle and high school students. The event will be held on Tuesday, April 23, 2019 from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM, at the Blossom Athletic Center Gym and Parking Lot, located at 12002 Jones Maltsberger Road. The purpose of Career Expo is to inform students of training, educational programs and career opportunities in many different career fields. This event may be the first step students have in choosing their career pathway.

Congratulations

Congrats to our Girls and Boys golf teams for their performance at the District 27-6A Championships. The girls walked away victorious in a hard fought battle over Churchill and Reagan. The girls shot rounds of 315-310 on their way to victory. The ladies were led by Jordyn Wray who shot rounds of 71-72 and finished with medalist honors, while Kiersten Bryant finished 3rd individually. Stevie Albright chipped in a solid performance with an 8th place finish overall. Kalyn Otten and Christina Trujillo both had top 20 performances as well. The ladies will compete at the Regional Tournament beginning on Monday April 22nd at the Republic Golf Course.

The Jaguar Boys golf team won their 4th consecutive district championship with a decisive 42 shot victory. The Jags fired rounds of 302-287 in route to victory. The Jags were led by Johnny Keefer who finished 2nd individually and Garrett Martin who finished 3rd overall. Josh Lim had a solid 5th place performance while Caleb Knight chipped in an 8th place finish. Joe Fontana finished 10th individually while Kyle Mahan posted a top 15 as did Matt McKenzie. The Jaguar Boys will be back in action at the Regional Championships starting on Wednesday April 24th.
